

Learn to be a Conservation Advocate

Hosted by the National Wildlife Federation and Virginia Conservation Network

Do you love to fish, hunt, paddle, hike, or otherwise recreate in the outdoors? Do you worry that outdoor recreation might be at risk from environmental harms and mismanagement? Are you unsure about how to get involved and make a difference?

Then come and join us at Front Royal Brewing Company to learn how to become an advocate for your natural resources. Get updated on public policy that could impact your outdoor recreation and learn how to make a difference!

Where: Front Royal Brewing Company; 122 E Main St, Front Royal, VA 22630

When: Wednesday, August 15th, from 5:30-7:00

Who: Anyone who loves the outdoors and wants to make a difference protecting them

Why: Unprecedented attacks on our outdoor resources have come from Washington politicians in the past year. Learn how to effectively stand up and make your voice heard

Contact Kyle Hart at (434) 390-5588 or kyle@vcnva.org with any questions